A Most Valuable Agent.

The glycerine employed in Dr. Pierce's medicines greatly enhances the medicinal properties which it extracts from native medicinal roots and holds in solution much better than alcohol would. It also possesses medicinal properties of its own, being a valuable demulcent, nutritive, antiseptic and antiferment. It adds greatly to the efficacy of the Black Cherry-bark, Bloodroot, Golden Seal root, Stone root and Queen's root, contained in "Golden Medical Discovery" in subduing chronic, or lingering coughs, bronchitis, throat and lung affections, for all of which these agents are recommended by standard medical authorities.

In all cases where there is a wasting away of flesh, loss of appetite, with weak stomach, as in the early stages of consumption, there can be no doubt that glycerine acts as a valuable nutritive and aids the Golden Seal root, Stone root, Queen's root and Black Cherrybark in promoting digestion and building up the flesh and strength, controlling the cough and bringing about a healthy condition of the whole system. Of course, it must not be expected to work miracles. It will not cure consumption except in the early stages. It will cure, however, chronic, or lingering coughs, or those of long standing, even when accompanied by bleeding from lungs, that it has performed its most marvelous cures.

Prof. Finley H. H. Wood, M. D., of Bennett Med. College, Chicago, says of glycerine: "In dispensed it serves an excellent purpose. Holding a fixed quantity of the peroxide of hydrogen in solution, it is one of the best manufactured products of the present time in its action upon encrusted diseased stomachs, especially if there is ulceration or catarrhal gastritis (catarrhal inflammation of stomach). It is a most efficient preparation. Glycerine will relieve many cases of indigestion (heartburn) and excessive gastric (stomach) acidity."

Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce of Buffalo, N. Y., for free booklet telling all about the native medicinal roots composing this wonderful medicine. These are enclosed in it.

WAVE OF CRIME.

Chicago appeared Sunday to have been seized by a veritable wave of crime, and when the last reports of the day were in the police were confronted with two brilliant murder mysteries, one murder and suicide and one killing in which the murderer fled and left his victim to die later at the Alexian Brothers' Hospital.

In addition there was another attack upon a white girl six years old by a negro. Following is a summary of Sunday's crimes:
The body of an unidentified man was taken from the river; his hands were tied and his clothing was weighted with stones.

The body of Joseph Genesini was taken from the lake at the foot of Twelfth street. The police scent a murder mystery and are investigating the death.

Rosa C. Price murdered his wife because the baby cried all night, and then committed suicide.

John Goss was struck on the head with an iron bar in a quarrel and died at the Alexian Brothers' Hospital. The murderer escaped.

Hilda Anderson, six years old, was attacked by a negro. This is the fifth case of the kind to be reported to the police within ten days.

THE PLATT DIVORCE SUIT.

Though every effort was made to keep the proceedings secret, Mae C. Wood's suit for absolute divorce from U. S. Senator Thomas C. Platt came up in the Supreme Court in New York yesterday afternoon. Miss Wood, who is a handsome blonde, has been schoolteacher, lawyer and stenographer, and it was through Senator Platt's influence that she got a position as government stenographer in the Postoffice Department at Washington.

She declares that Senator Platt married her at the Fifth Avenue Hotel on November 1, 1901, and that the aged Senator's marriage to Lillian T. Janeway, nearly two years afterwards, was null and void.

J. Day Lee, counsel for Mae Wood, said:

"We have absolute proof that Miss Wood was married to Senator Platt on November 1, 1901, and she is now suing him for absolute divorce on the only ground upon which a divorce can be obtained in New York.

Senator Platt denies absolutely that he was married to Mae Wood and denies the charge in the bill for divorce.

TELEGRAPH AND TELEPHONE COMPANIES.

The State Corporation Commission has just completed the assessment of telegraph and telephone companies for the year 1907 and the figures below show the increase over the year 1906:

Total value of all property, 1907, $2,387,120.12; 1906, $1,911,150.95; increase, $475,969.17; total property tax, 1907, $3,179.91; 1906, $6,692.99; increase, $1,486.92; gross earnings in Virginia, 1907, $1,271,974.75; 1906, $1,069,556.52; increase, $202,418.23; total license tax, 1907, $33,642.26; 1906, $29,196.46; increase, $3,345.80; grand total state tax, 1907, $41,722.17; 1906, $35,889.45; increase, $5,832.72.

The total value of all property, $2,387,120.12, is subdivided so as to show the value in each city and town and each school district of each county through which the lines run, these valuations being required by law to be used as basis for local levy by city, town and county authorities.

His Dear Old Mother.

"My dear old mother, who is now eighty-three years old, thrives on Electric Bitters," writes W. R. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. "She has taken them for about two years and enjoys an excellent appetite, feels strong and 'sleeps well.' That's the way Electric Bitters affect the aged, and the same happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility. Weak, puny children, too, are greatly strengthened by them. Guaranteed also for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, by all druggists. 50c.

BREWERY WORKERS INDICTED.

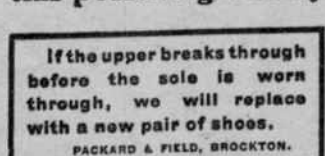

Eighteen members of United Brewery Workers' unions in Washington were indicted yesterday for conspiracy by the grand jury. They are charged with maliciously and unlawfully combining and conspiring to injure and destroy the trade and business of several bottling firms because the latter refused to grant demands of the local union men for increased pay and shorter hours.

The union men were indicted jointly upon the charge of conspiracy. Among them is Louis Weingart.
It is asserted that the unions exercised the right to limit and restrict business dealings of persons and firms by declaring certain employers of workmen to be "unfair" and "unfair to organized labor" in cases of noncompliance by such employers with union demands.

WOMEN AND WINE.
The pulpit crusade against women drinking reached a climax yesterday with the publication of charges that members of the Chicago "400" had engaged in a disgraceful "spill," following the kirkness winter before last. The charges against certain society women were made by Rev. F. G. Smith, pastor of the Warren Avenue Congregational Church, who came to the aid of Rev. F. E. Hopkins, of Pilgrim Congregational Church, who originated the crusade. The minister declared that at the conclusion of the kirkness several of the society women, together with their escorts, took part in a champagne dinner. He declared that it had been charged that before the dinner was concluded the contents of bottles of wine were poured over the fine garments of the women, over their heads, and over the clothes of the men. Society leaders are fighting back vigorously, but in the absence of Miss Stanley Field, who had charge of the kirkness, and who at present is visiting relatives in Baltimore, no official denial could be made.

A Certain Cure for Croup—Used for Ten Years without a Failure.

Mr. W. C. Bott, a Star City, Ind., hardware merchant, is enthusiastic in his praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. His children have all been subject to croup and he has used this remedy for the past ten years, and though they much fear the croup, his wife and he always felt safe upon retiring when a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was in the house. His oldest child was subject to severe attacks of croup, but this remedy never failed to effect a speedy cure. He has recommended it to friends and neighbors and all who have used it say that it is unequalled for croup and whooping cough. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS.

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. It is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

Guaranteed under the food and drugs act June 30th, 1906. Serial number 1068.

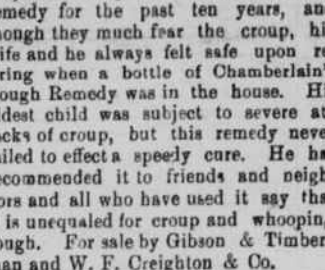

[Editorial in Hartford, Conn., Daily Courant]

Collector P. Davis Oakley has voluntarily withdrawn the personal bond of $25,000, given for the proper performance of his duties, and has substituted the bond of a fidelity company for the same amount. This commendable action deserves a passing comment. Mr. Oakley could no difficulty whatever in getting bondsmen, but, whoever his bondsmen might be, there could be no denying that they had put the collector under a direct personal obligation to them. It is far more independent and self-respecting to go down into your own pocket for the premium and pay a corporation, chartered for the purpose, for giving its bond for you. This cost him some money, but with that he buys complete personal independence and sets an example that should be widely followed. It is the way to do business; and it is no reflection upon willing friends to go instead to a company. On the contrary, it is doing them a favor.

This bond was written by the
